

Banded Water Snake

Coloring Instructions: Color the stripes under its chin rusty brown. The markings on its back are four different colors: black, cream, rusty brown, and dark brown.

Interesting Fact: These non-venomous snakes are often mistaken for young water moccasins and killed. They are usually active at night, but sometimes sun themselves on logs. They eat frogs, tadpoles, and fish.