

Red-bellied Woodpecker

Coloring Instructions:

Color the top of the head red. Put a small red smear on its cheek and its belly. The beak and legs should be gray. The rest of the bird is white. Be sure to color the tree brown.

Interesting Fact: Red-bellied woodpeckers eat more than just bugs! They'll also eat acorns, blackberries, oranges, and even corn.